Property Description

Enjoy the country life on this huge leveled lot located minutes from La Fortuna. The whole property has potential for construction. Whether you want to build by the road or make a beautiful private driveway to build in the back. In the back section of the lot you can enjoy the beautiful views of the Arenal volcano. The property can be used for agriculture as well or half and half. If your looking for a property that can hold a few homes and still remain private this is the Lot you need. There are so many uses for this property. There is also a river located on the back end of the lot. Located in a very quiet neighborhood with lots of restaurants and grocery stores near by. It is a must see.
