Property Description

Strategically located between Montezuma, St. Teresa, and Mal Pais sits this stunning property. With over 30 years of planting; the landscape of this property is unbelievable and the developmental opportunity here is immense. Tucked away at the back of the property is the gorgeous 4-story luxury villa. The architectural design is unique and was inspired with Gaudian and Arabian style. The home features soft curves that inspires relaxation and inner peace amidst a festival of nature that surrounds the villa. It has two suites, with 4 persons capacity each. The Turkish bath is simply amazing and a dip in the Olympic swimming pool at night gazing at the moon is heavenly. There is a slide from the second floor that takes you for a fun ride right into the middle of the pool! The open kitchen and bar with bbq area is the perfect setting for entertaining. All throughout the home you will find gazebos, Terrazas, and little nooks to read a book and watch wildlife.
