Property Description

This incredible offering includes a total of seven farms located around the base of the breathtaking Diamante Waterfall, the tallest waterfall in Costa Rica at approximately 600-feet tall. With a total size of 64 hectares (150 acres), these farms represent the best Diamante Waterfall-view properties available in the sought-after Tinamaste-Diamante valley. Located just 20 minutes from Dominical beach, and 25 minutes to San Isidro, the second largest city in Costa Rica (population 130,000), this property boasts great convenience while feeling like a world away from the bustle of big towns. The climate here is also extremely pleasant with highs during the day in the mid-80s F and cool, mosquito-free evenings in the mid- to low-60s F. Known for its rich and productive soil and abundant water, this valley has become the epicenter of an extended natural, organic, and sustainable intentional living community.
