Property Description

This luxury modern 'mini homestead' is located in Ojochal, the culinary capital of Costa Rica. This private family home features breathtaking mountain and sunset views. Just outside the private main home gate, is a new construction container home featuring a 45"x20" covered wood deck with a full kitchen, private bedroom, and 2 bathrooms, ideal for a guest home, home school/office space or a rental space. On the lower section of the property, there is also an extra building pad ready for a second home! The entire property is fenced and gated, even the main home is fenced off for extra privacy and security. Nestled away in nature, this property is only minutes away from some of the best beaches in Costa Rica, tastiest cuisine and private schools. It is the perfect place if you want to experience international residential living in an upscale established ex-pat community. This beautiful home feels like you stepped into a luxurious resort with its surroundings and amenities.
