Property Description

Casa Cooper is located at the beginning of the exclusive Bosques del Lago residential area near Playa Carrillo less than ten minutes away by car from the wonderful Carrillo beach and about 15 minutes away from Samara beach. Completed in 2023 using the best building materias found on the market. It's solid concrete base provides anti-seismic protection and the rest of the house in a strong structure made entirely of wood, which gives it a singular beauty and unique aesthetic finish. Inside the house we have two medium-sized rooms each equipped with AC and small closets. Next to them is the shared bathroom and shower, beautifully made of ceramic walls and tiled floors . A very comfortable and spacious living room, an open kitchen area, with totally new appliances and furniture are part of the appeal of this beautiful home. The living space continues outdoors with a relaxation area and a beautiful pool with a waterfall and intelligent filtering.
