Property Description

Construction is almost complete! The Cielo Azul Villa (Blue Sky Villa) estate is an unsurpassed work of excellence sitting hillside in the Uvita area along the south Pacific coast of Costa Rica, with expansive ocean views that few homes can claim they enjoy. With 90% of construction completed, this 7,000 square foot estate is going to be finished out with the highest quality products. The interior design has been a part of the process from the beginning. The partnership of high-end home builder Epiphany, and designer Michael Seven of South Pacific Design, gives us the result a discerning buyer will appreciate and enjoy. From the multiple entertainment zones - the full bar and adjacent 10 person hot tub, to the expansive chef's kitchen and adjacent 14 person dining room. When you are ready to host in intimate dinner, or a full scale house-warming party for 50, this home can handle it all. The sunken living room surrounded by the pool on three sides is a unique feature and allows the people behind to enjoy the expansive ocean views also.
