Property Description

Puerto Escondido (Hidden Port) is tucked away in the hills of Playa Ocotal and boasts one of the best views of the shoreline and islands in the Papagayo Bay. Hear the waves crashing on this 4 bed/4 bath home that sits on an estate size lot of over half acre (2601m²) and measures 3691sqft inside AC with a total of 5584sqft of construction, well-suited for your family or could be utilized as a bed and breakfast or vacation rental. The home was designed by an Italian architect and constructed with natural materials. The surrounding tropical gardens add privacy and a beautiful pool and spa tub invite you to cool off and relax. When you prepare meals in the fully equipped, large kitchen you can choose to dine in the kitchen or enjoy them on the semi-circle, covered terrace as you listen to the waves crash below. Inside, the great room features beautiful stone walls, cathedral wood ceilings, and comfortable furnishings for sharing stories with family and friends.
