Property Description

Projecto Isla Brava is approximately 140 acres of startling beauty that boasts approximately 1.6 km of coastline. Located off the pacific coast of Panama, 35 miles from the southern border of Costa Rica, Isla Brava is part of an archipelago islands in the Gulf of Chiriqui National Marine Preserve. Isla Brava has an approved masterplan of 50 residential parcels, some with private dock access, and a unique peninsula that will become an exclusive eco-resort with it's own boutique marina project. Beaches, coves, bays and cliffs, along with interior forests all create an interesting mix and spectacular views. Offshore, fish, humpback whales, dolphins and sea turtles are abundant. Access Remote and private, yet easily accessible from the mainland. Departing from David's Pedregal marina, you take a beautiful 45-minute excursion on the projects 25-foot boat, through tropical river waterways and into the ocean for 15 minute ride to Boca Brava.
