Property Description

This Playa Zancudo Beach Lot is a double lot with over 52 meters of beach frontage. It is located in the heart of world-class surfing and fishing. Just a few steps to a great restaurant and miles of empty beach in front of you. This area is quickly gaining value as there are not too many places in the world where you can own beachfront property for so little. Playa Zancudo is a laid-back, funky, dirt road, barefoot, no shirt community. But yet there is a new wave of expats that are finding a great place to build their dream home for pennies on the dollar. You will find a new wave of building comfortable, nicely designed homes for buyers that see the unique opportunity of having a beach house for so very little. Some of your neighbors in Playa Zancudo include howlers, white-faced and titi monkeys. Sloths are numerous here as well and can be seen lounging in the trees. Fishing in this area is completely wide open.
