Property Description

Welcome to Casa Numu! This tropical home is a brand new offering, with a projected completion timeframe of mid 2023. Casa Numu is located on 300 m2 of titled land within a 20 minute walk to the Marino Ballena National park, home of the Whale's Tail Beach, as well as a 10 minute walk to the Uvita river. The home features a unique architectural design featuring bioclimatics and is comprised of 2 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. The word Numu is from the Bribri language and means Sun, so the intention of the modern design is to optimize natural lighting and airflow, all the while seeking a balance of functionality. The primary bedroom features direct access to the outdoor terrace, a Japandi style closet and a lovely bay window which would be the perfect reading nook. The guest bedroom is a comfortable size and can serve also as an office space, with a private terrace attached. The kitchen features Guanacaste wood counter tops, custom cabinets and cooktop island.
