Property Description

Tucked within the center of Cabuya located at the tip of the Nicoya peninsula lies this magical lot. Cabuya is a small fishing village known to be home to the first national park established in Costa Rica, Cabo Blanco. Additionally, it holds an abundance of nature and wildlife within the area. Locals have considered this to be a gem. The 'off-the-beaten-path' location gives it the utmost feeling of privacy and seclusion. Within the town of Cabuya lies an endless coastline, beautiful beaches, rivers, and waterfalls. Several small businesses also occupy the area allowing for daily conveniences to be met. This town is quiet, peaceful, and plentiful when it comes to flora and fauna. This property is very centrally located within the heart of Cabuya. The lot measures a total of 6,882 m2 with a rectangular shape that holds a vast amount of flat land perfect for building a family home or vacation rentals.
