Property Description

Discover your dream home in the highly sought-after Lagunas neighborhood. This exceptional gated residence offers two bedrooms, two baths, and breathtaking sunset ocean views that will captivate you all year round. Situated atop a hill, the property provides an uninterrupted vista that spans the entire coastline, extending all the way to the enchanting Manuel Antonio Islands. Immerse yourself in privacy as there are no neighboring homes within sight—only the serene embrace of lush, ancient jungle. In addition to its remarkable features, this home presents opportunities for expansion. With available building areas nearby, you have the option to add a third or fourth bedroom, tailoring the space to your specific needs. Across the private drive, a separate building area awaits, offering the potential for a secluded cabin that could serve as a guesthouse or generate future rental income. Seize this rare chance to own one of the last remaining sunset ocean view homes in the southern zone, all at a price significantly below the million-dollar mark.
