Property Description

This nearly 8 acre (3+ hectares) lot follows the path of the Buena Vista River, just two kilometers from the center of Samara. Its proximity to the main street, provides easy access to public services such as water, electricity and internet. Totally flat, this land offers many opportunities to combine housing projects, rental units or a large single family residence while still conserving the land around it. Strategically located in between beautiful locations such as Samara beach and Buena Vista Beach, and about 4 km from the renowned Barrigona National Park. This is a great opportunity and one of the last of its kind in the region, you should not miss this chance. Contact us today for more information!
