Property Description

Are you looking for a cozy, low-maintenance jungle home with the modern-building style that you can be proud of in retirement? How about a beautiful and stylish vacation home for your family and rental guests that you can rent out when you are not able to visit in person? Check out this gorgeous nearly-completed home with expected finish date in January 2023 and be the first owner and put your personal stamp on it. The home is located in the rural, outdoor and retirement paradise of Ojochal Costa Rica where you will find easy living, warm but mild temperatures, natural beaches, wildlife, welcoming expats and locals, and just enough civilization to keep the biggest foodies busy for days. The home is located in the Aves del Sur (Phase 5) neighborhood; the community is full of lush jungle and is home to a number of high-end homes and villas. This popular neighborhood is safe and perfect for really any use you can think of.
